

MAINE RECEIVES ITS GREATEST LEGACY OUT OF J. S. HYDE ESTATE

Formerly That from Hill Estate $55,000 Held the
State Record

Franklin Fisher, Esq., Augusta, assistant attorney general for the State, was in the city today on business with J. M. Trott, in connection with the settlement of the inheritance tax of the John S. Hyde estate.

The amount of the inheritance tax will be the largest ever received by the State. The inheritance tax paid by the estate of former Governor John F. Hill in 1914 was $55,000 but that of the Hyde estate will be more.
